Correspondence of Pomeroy & Co. No. 2 Wall-street. BUFFALO, Nov. 11-1; P. M. Some 2,500 bushels of Massillon Wheat, an article which generally ranges here on a par with Chicago Grain, sold at 75 cents; but the holders of Milan and St. Joseph Wheat all refuse to accept of any such price for their samples. The weather is stormy and adverse to out-door operations, consequently the market is flat. Freights having gone up so high yesterday prevented any operations being made, and no doubt nearly all the produce intended for sale here will be stored and remain all winter; still there will be a large amount sent forward, which is to go direct on. There is a large number of vessels expected in, but the wind is up the Lake to-day. Freight on Flour to New York $1, and 25 cents for Wheat to Albany. Wheat was sold yesterday at 76 for good Ohio-a parcel of Michigan Flour at $3.81. As far as we can learn, there will be more Beef packed this season than has been formerly, and no doubt prices will rule low at the east. In Michigan they are making arrangements to pat up a large quantity of Beef and Pork. There is any amount of Wheat there, and a great deal will lie over during the winter. During the past three days our Imports from the West have been large, exceeding our Exports

CINCINNATI, Nov. S .- Flour-The receipts this week are by the canal 22.7 bbls; river 7 barrels; railroad 315-Total 569 bbls. The receipts by wagons there is no means of arriving at. We have to note a slight advance in the price: 365 was the asking price this morning at the canal, but we lave heard of no sales at over 3 64. City Mills are holding at 3 65. Wheat—Is still firm at 70 cents, but slight additions to the stock since last week, say 1491 bushels ALBANY, Nov. 13 .- There is considerable inquiry for flour to-day. For the best brands $4 87 is asked and in some cases acceded to. The general asking price however is 4 69, and a large quantity could be had at that mark. The com-mon brands are 6c less. We quote as before, 262½ a 475, as the full market range. The arrivals on Saturday were 9918

Mobile, Nov. 6 .- Cotton -- Since our report of Friday last, the market has undergone no material chunge. The inquiry has been rather light, and the operations in most inthe unable to observe any change, although latterly, holders have been rather firmer in their pretensions. The transactions since our last amount to about 500 bales, the greater part of which, as previously, is for the Northern markets. We are yet unable to notice any material improvement in Exchange; the demand continues extremely light, and the supply is consequently adequate to present wants. Rates are without alteration.

CURE OF LIVER COMPLAINT.—I do certify that my wife has been sick about two months, being confined to her bed for three weeks with an affection of the liver, to which she has been predisposed for ten or twelve years past; her countenance was very sallow, with great pain in her side, and a violent cough, which kept ther from sleeping nights, with much pain inside; whenever she ark at all she would be attacked with great pain at pit of stomach. Dr. Hoffman recommended me to call at 375 Bowery, and get a bottle of Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort, which he thought would relieve her. About three or four weeks since she commenced using it, and she is of Liverwort, which he thought would relieve her. About three or four weeks since she commenced using it, and she is now nearly well, so that she goes about the house attending to her duties, and that I think Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort will get her entirely well, for which I feel very grateful, and am happy to recommend it to all similarly affected.

Yours, truly,

G. WATSON,

The greatest of all blessings on earth is health, hence it becomes every man's duty as far as possible to preserve his health; and if disease fastens upon the system, it is his duty at once to use means to restore his health. For Cougha, Colds, Consumption, Dyapepsia, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croop, Whooping Cough, &c. Covert's Balm of Life is a certain cure if used in season, and according to directions. Let the afflicted read our testimonials and judge for themselves. We are satisfied that if the testimonials are read, that the Balm will be got, and if the Balm is used the patient will be cured. We would also recommend Fleming's Medicated Worm and Diarrhoa Candies as the most effectual remedy in those complaints. They are purely vegetable, and antirely safe for children and adults.

These medicines are sold, wholesale and retail, at Dr. Covert's Office, 135 Nassau st., Clinton Hall; also, by E. Chastney, 150 Bowery; D. Sands & Co. 77 East Broadway; Coddington, 227 Hudson st.; E. Sore Throat, Coughs, Consumption, pains in various parts of the body, and other unpleasant symptoms, are the usual effects of catching cold. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a certain cure for all disorders of the throat; because they carry off, by the stomach and bowels, those poisonous they carry on, by the stomach and bowels, those poisonous humors which, in consequence of obstructed perspiration, are thrown inwardly, and are the cause of the above dangerous complaints. From three to six of the said Pills, taken every night on going to bed, will, in a short time, make a most perfect cure of the most obstinate attack of sore throat; at the same time the digestion will be improved, and the blood so completely unfilled that new life and vigor will be given to completely purified, that new life and vigor will be given to Beware of Counterfeits .- In order to avoid being imposed as directed, their children would be cured; but, it hegicted the discharge continues very troublesome, the hearing gradually gets worse, and finally partial or total deafness ensues. This invaluable medicine is sold by A. B. & D. SANDS, Druggists, No. 79 Fulton st. 77 East Broadway, 273 Broadway.

The Invisible Wig so closely resembles the real head of heir that aceptics and connoisseurs have pronounced it the most perfect and extraordinary invention of the day. The great advantage of this novel and unique Wig is its being made without sewing or weaving, which causes its appearance so closely to resemble the natural hair, both in lightness and natural appearance, as to dely detection, its texture pearance so closely to resemble the natural hair, both in lightness and natural appearance, as to dely detection, its texture being so beautiful, so porous and so free, that in all cases of perspiration evaporation is unimpeded, and the great evils of other Wigs entirely avoided. It will be furnished to subscribers only, and the publishers have to state that no person is anthorized to sell them otherwise nor at any other than the regular price.

The plan of the work is new, and it is deemed a great and valuable improvement. The 40 numbers will form a complete library, in which the chief topics of human interest, such as history, biography, arts, sciences, geography, manners and customs of nations, &c. &c. &c. will be presented in astriking and attractive manner. The strong points of these several subjects will be so exhibited as at once to excite the interest, and impress the mind, of the reader. Dearly beloved New World! permit us to say, your edition subjects will be so exhibited as at once to excite the interest, and impress the mind, of the reader.

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING EXTRACTS.

From the Boston Traveller.—"We deem it but a discharge of our duty to our readers to urge this valuable series upon their attention. They are beautifully executed, and will be an ornament alike to the table of the rich and the shelf, of thehumble; they will be of inestimable value, in the course of years, to every family that possesses them, for as they are of years, to every family that possesses them, for as they are attractive they will be read, and as they are full of striking truth they will bestow instruction."

From the Boston Courier.—"They are exceedingly agreeable books, and such as young and old may peruse with pleasure and profit. The sketches of Scott, Byron, Bonaparte, Burns, Johnson, Goethe, Shakspeare, &c. are lively and amusing in style, just in criticism, and interesting in narration; and we feel surprised, that on such hackneyed topics, the surprise in so brief a space, has been able to say so much that author, in so brief a space, has been able to say so much that is racy, new, and striking."

From the Traveller—"The whole series will cost but a trifle, yet they may, and doubtless will be, the deciding means of insuring success in life to many a youth who shall enjoy the means of reading them."

From the Boston Allas.—" Parleys Cabinet library is worthy af all encouragement. It is cheap not only in promise, but in fact—150 pages for 25 cents; and it is calculated to exercise a wholesome influence. Like every thing from the same author, it strongly inculcates virtue and religion, and at the same time it arrays truth in a guise so comely and attractive, that it is likely to win many vetaries of fiction to companionship with her. There is great need of such works at this time." From the Boston Traveller .- " Mechanics, farmers, and

From the Boston Traveller.—" Mechanics, farmers, and others, may well consider not so much whether they can afford to buy this work, as whether they can afford to buy this work, as whether they can afford to do without a thing so important, yet so easily obtained."

From the Universalist Miscellany.—" There is no man living who has done so much for the rising generation as Peter Parley. His works for the young have been have been read by tens of thousands, with the highest satisfaction and advantage. Peter Parley is the greatest, and wisest and best man on earth, in the minds of multitudes of children. They think no man has seen so much, traveled so much, or loves children so much as he does. This popular Peter Parley is the author of the Cabinet Library."

From the Sabbath School Messenger.—" This excellent work has reached its sixth number, and seems to increase in value and interest as it proceeds. A great deal of the money paid for the low price pamphlets of the day is worse than thrown away; the money paid for this will be invested in a work of permanent value, and one, cheaper by twenty per cent than the (so called) cheap publications now current among us."
